

WHA apprentice program honored by state public housing association

The WHA was recently honored by the statewide public housing association for a program aimed at helping residents train for and acquire employment.

<http://www.telegram.com/news/20180705/worcester-housing-authority-apprentice-program-honored-by-state-public-housing-association>